Shannon,

The only hit my search turned up other than your correspondence is the below e-mail which just has Liberty as a receiver of a mass mailing. I'm sure this is not what you are seeking, but shows that we did the search.

I had locked in, committed to my goals. I've always believed that if you put in the work, the results will come. I don't do things halfheartedly. Because I know if I do, then I can expect half-hearted results. That's why I approached practices the same way I approached games.

Michael Jordan

We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act but a habit.
